1. Introduction & Acceptance

1. These terms ("Terms") apply to all visitors, clients, and users of reboc.nl and to all services provided by Reboc B.V.
2. By accessing or using our website or services, you accept these Terms in full. If you do not agree, you must not use our site.
3. If you have entered into a separate written agreement with Reboc B.V. (such as a services agreement (dienstverleningsovereenkomst) or a statement of work), that agreement prevails over these Terms in the event of any conflict or inconsistency.

2. Definitions

1. Reboc, we, us -Refers to Reboc B.V., based in The Netherlands.
2. You, Client, Specialist, User -Any person or entity interacting with Reboc's website or services. Where these Terms refer to a Client in the context of an engagement, this means the independent company that performs services under its agreement with Reboc.
3. Customer -A party that contracts with Reboc for the delivery of services, which Reboc performs through a Client.
4. Services -The IT services Reboc contracts to deliver to a Customer, performed through independent Clients, together with the contracting, invoicing and administration that supports them.
5. In Dutch-language agreements, 'Client' corresponds to 'Opdrachtnemer' and 'Customer' corresponds to 'Opdrachtgever'.

3. Services Overview

1. Reboc contracts with Customers for the delivery of defined IT services, and contracts separately with Clients to perform those services. Reboc is a party to both agreements and is responsible to the Customer for the delivery of the agreed Services.
2. The scope of each engagement is set out in a Statement of Work, as deliverables or backlog items with acceptance criteria. Work is accepted by the Customer's project manager against those criteria.
3. Reboc does not employ Clients and does not supply personnel to work under the direction and supervision of a third party. Reboc contracts for the delivery of defined services, and does not direct how a Client performs the work.
4. Reboc invoices Customers in its own name for Services delivered under its agreement with the Customer, and pays Clients under its separate agreement with them.

6. Fees & Payment

1. The rate payable by a Customer to Reboc, and the rate payable by Reboc to a Client, are each agreed in writing with that party before the engagement begins.
2. Reboc pays a Client for work that the Customer has accepted, after Reboc has received payment from the Customer for that work.
3. The difference between the rate Reboc charges a Customer and the rate Reboc pays a Client is Reboc's own margin on the Services it sells. Reboc charges the Client nothing for the engagement itself.
4. All invoicing and payments are subject to applicable VAT regulations and reverse-charge mechanisms when required.
5. The rates applicable to a Client are exclusively those specified in the written agreement between Reboc and that Client.
